MERCEDES-BENZ 'BLACK PRINCE'

CMC-Modelcars, 1:18, €497

To celebrate its 25th anniversary, award-winning German model manufacturer CMC has returned to its first subject, the sensational 1932 Mercedes-Benz SSK 'Black Prince'. The original was 1:24, but the famous ex-Count Trossi SSK has now been released in stunning 1:18 form. With a body made for Trossi in 1933 by English coachbuilder Willi White, the great car has been a feature of several renowned collections and is now owned by Ralph Lauren. The impressive level of detail in this 1000-part masterpiece includes superb inset instruments, a dramatic six-cylinder engine and an opening boot with spare wheel. A special edition is also available with gold seats, a book and a gold coin, limited to 600 examples and priced at €898.
